

read me differently

A Film by Sarah Entine

“...Read Me Differently is a remarkable film...it is truly inspirational.”

—Edward M. Hallowell, M.D. and Sue George Hallowell LICSW
Co-authors, Married to Distraction

“YOUR SCHOOL NAME/ORGANIZATION”

proudly presents a screening of

READ ME DIFFERENTLY

DATE:

TIME:

LOCATION:

In Read Me Differently, first-time filmmaker Sarah Entine exposes unrecognized learning disabilities that bridge three generations in her family. Entine’s discovery of her own dyslexia at the age of 29—and her subsequent search for answers—ultimately leads to surprising revelations between those closest to her, especially her mother and grandmother.

www.readmedifferently.com

